The vertical column on the right contains the following images from top to bottom:

- A small branch of a green Christmas tree.
- A close-up of a brown reindeer's head with a red harness.
- A small illustration of a house with a chimney.
